

SAMPLE list of Differentiated READING Supports

(There are a plethora of them out there, this is just a start...)

FREE Resources	Available to Purchase
THIS one is a MUST SEE! FREE resources for eligible K-12 students with IEPs in VA. Two FREE audio file resources LibriVOx and Free Classic Audio Books: AIM VA: http://kihd.gmu.edu/aim/resources/	Adapted books that parallel the grade level tests: (Reading levels 4-8 & interest levels 6-12) http://www.pearsonschool.com/index.cfm?locator=PSZu68&PMDbProgramId=33842
This site has articles on the same topic but at different Lexile (reading) levels. Newsela: https://newsela.com/about/	This one includes phonics lessons to help with learning to read. It includes scripted lessons paired with books: http://donjohnston.com/start-to-finish-core-curriculum/#.VMJubsbnv88
You can get units at different reading levels based on skills, comprehension, or novels. Readworks: http://www.readworks.org	Use the Diagnostic Reading Problem Solver to find a reading product to match your students' reading difficulty. http://www.glencoe.com/gln/jamestown/problem_solver.html

